1. INTRODUCTION:

Insider trading means trading in Securities of a company by its Directors, Employees or other Insiders while in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (“UPSI”). Such trading by Insiders erode the investors’ confidence in the integrity of the management and is unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of investors in general, had formulated the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 under the powers conferred on it under the SEBI Act, 1992, which came into effect from November 19, 1992 and the same were made applicable to all companies whose shares were listed on Indian stock exchanges.

To strengthen these regulations and to create a framework for prevention of insider trading to facilitate legitimate business transactions, Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as “the Regulations”) were notified by SEBI on January 15, 2015 which became effective from May 14, 2015.

Based on the recommendations of Vishwanathan Committee, SEBI vide Notifications dated December 31, 2018 and January 21, 2019 made further amendments to the aforesaid Regulations. The Regulations not only regulate trading by insiders but also seek to prohibit insider trading.

It is mandatory in terms of the Regulations for every listed company, market intermediaries, fiduciaries and any other person who is required to handle UPSI in the course of business operations to formulate a Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading to regulate, monitor and report trading by its Directors, Employees who are Designated Persons and Immediate Relative of Designated Persons and other Connected Persons. In addition, every company whose Securities are listed on stock exchanges, is also required to formulate and publish on its website a Code of Practices and Procedures for fair disclosure of UPSI.

The subject of disclosure practices and insider trading have already been dealt with in the Wadia Code of Ethics and Business Principles. Clauses 16, and 21, respectively of the Wadia Code of Ethics and Business Principles, currently in force, dealing with these subjects are reproduced below:

16. SHAREHOLDERS:

A WADIA Company shall be committed to enhancing shareholder value and complying with all regulations and laws that govern shareholders’ rights. The Board of Directors of a WADIA Company shall duly and fairly inform its shareholders about all relevant aspects of the Company’s business and disclose such information in accordance with the respective regulations and agreements.

21. SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION:

A Director or an employee of a WADLA Group Company and his/her immediate family shall not derive any benefit or assist others to derive any benefit from the access to and possession of information about the Company or the Group which is not in the public domain and thus constitutes insider information.

A Director or an employee of a WADLA Group Company shall not use or proliferate information which is not available to the investing public and which therefore constitutes insider information for making or giving advice on investment decisions on the securities of the respective WADLA Group Company on which such insider information has been obtained.

Such insider information might include the following:

- acquisition and divestiture of businesses or business units
- financial information such as profits, earnings and dividends

In line with the Wadia Code of Ethics and Business Principles and in order to comply with the mandatory requirement of the Regulations, it was necessary to formulate a specific Code of Conduct for the Company for use by its Directors, Employees, Designated Persons and other Connected Persons.

The Code is based on the principle that Directors and Employees of the Company owe a fiduciary duty to, among others, the shareholders of the Company to place the interest of the shareholders above their own and conduct their personal Securities transactions in a manner that does not create any conflict of interest situation.

The Code is also intended to serve as a guiding charter for all concerned persons associated with the functioning of listed companies and their trading in Securities of such companies. Further, the Code also seeks to ensure timely and adequate disclosure of UPSI to the investor community by the Company to enable them to take informed investment decisions with regard to the Company's Securities. The provisions of this Code have to be read along with the Regulations and if there is any inconsistency / contradiction between the two, the provisions of the Regulations shall prevail.
